Dedication

The Breeze Staff is proud to dedicate the 1949 Breeze Annual to Mr. William C. Harton, who, besides being Senior High School Principal, has devoted much of his time and headaches to the problems of the Senior Class. May his guidance and understanding be remembered by those who have learned to appreciate his untiring counsel. We thank you, Mr. Harton.

PRESIDENT—Harold Wochholz
 VICE PRESIDENT—Tony Egnatuk
 SECRETARY—Betty Comstock
 TREASURER—Katie Bournelis

Class Song

*We are the gay old seniors,
 Time for us to graduate.
 For all the shares of fun
 And happiness
 We'll not be late.*

*We've tried to learn here,
 It's clear,
 The things we'll need in life to build;
 So as we leave this day
 In each his way,
 We will find our dream fulfilled.*

*Now as we leave you—
 All through,
 Our days at A.H.S. well spent,
 We must now say good-bye
 To Albion High
 We're now content.*

*We've chewed our gum here,
 Had fun here—
 Now it's time to rise and shine,
 So as we graduate
 We proudly state
 We're the class of '49.*

MOTTO—Education is the apprenticeship to life.

WITH MEMORIES

Although we leave our school behind,
It will remain within our mind:
These days of study and social life,
The days cut short as though a knife
Severed the ties that bound us to These lovely days we've wandered through.
Each his own way now
to follow—
Some days full and some days hollow,
Yet all these bound in many ways
With memories of our past school days.

Senior Class Votes Newell Good Citizen

Co-Editor of Annual Gets D.A.R. Award

Phyllis Newell has won the 1948-49 D.A.R. citizenship award at Albion high school. She will compete with other high school D.A.R. citizens at a state meeting, the winner of which will receive a $100 savings bond and a trip to Washington, D. C., for the national convention.

The D.A.R. winner was selected on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. The senior class voted recently to determine the A.H.S. girls of outstanding citizenship, and from the three highest choices, a faculty committee made the final selection.

During her three years at Albion senior high school, Phyllis has been co-editor of "The Breeze" annual, business manager for "The Breeze," play and Junior Ex., advertising manager for "The Breeze" and the Breeze play, and a member of "A" Club, Honor Society, Thespian Club, Senior High Council, Future Homemakers of America, and Recreation Board.

E. Tuthill Reigns As Football Queen

Ellen Tuthill, senior, was elected Football Queen for 1948 by the football squad. Sandy Wochholz named the Queen at the dance after the Marshall game, November 5.

Ellen is president of the "A" Club, and a member of the Honor Society, Latin Club, Usher's Club, Chapel Committee, and Senior High Student Council. After she graduates, Ellen plans to attend Michigan State College, where she will major in Home Economics.

The football team voted for its queen Friday, November 5, during conference period in Mr. Gray's room. Practically a unanimous vote gave the honor to Ellen.

Barbara Schaible Has Poem Accepted

Congratulations are in order for Barbara Schaible, senior, who had an original poem accepted for publication by the National Anthology of High School Poetry!

The poem entitled "Harmony," will appear in this annual edition of the Anthology. Upon being asked why she wrote it, Barbara replied, "I write poetry for something to do."

"Harmony" was accepted by the Anthology December 4, 1948.

Honor Society Taps Members In Assembly

Valedictorian, Salutatorian Chosen

In an assembly held last Monday morning, five juniors and ten seniors were tapped for the National honor society. Phyllis Newell was named valedictorian and Ellen Tuthill salutatorian of the senior class.

The new members of the Honor society are: juniors, Sue Carter, Jean Ford, John Gilbert, Russell Graves, and Lois Sheffield; seniors, Charles Anderson, Katie Bournellis, Betty and Nancy Comstock, Jean Davis, Robert Goodall, Yvonne Griffin, Frances Hawes, Pat Henke, and Don Klein.

Membership in the National Honor society is based on the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Another qualification necessary for membership is that the student shall have attended Albion high school for at least one year. Several faculty committees select the members.

Tapping of new members was done by the old members, June Charlier, Sallee Fox, Katherine Kowalchuck, Phyllis Newell, Stanley Swanson, Ellen Tuthill, and Harold Wochholz.

Juniors Work As Exhibition Draws Near

by June Charlier

Shh...! Do not disturb! The junior class is at work. Members of the set, props, costumes, and many other committees for "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," are working industriously as the 19th of February draws closer. That's the big night. Further details on the Jr. Ex. may be found elsewhere in the issue.

One of the largest jobs behind the scenes is that of the business manager, Phyllis Newell. Also under her direction is the job of publicity.

Stage Manager for the play is Victor Ball, with Roger Miller as his assistant. In charge of lighting is Charles Howell, assisted by Frank Bushinski and Bob Trautman. Polly Baldwin and Jean Klimovich are responsible for sound effects.

Chairman of the costume committee is Kay Van Gorden. Also on the committee are Kendall Bedient, June Charlier, Barry Ewbank, Yvonne Griffin, Connie Murrin, Phyllis Palmiter, Shirley Vinson, Betty Wallace, and Phyllis Ann Williams.

Elizabeth Davis is chairman of the small props committee, which consists of Austin Bitney, Dale MacDonald, and Frances Sawdey. Large Props committee is headed by Mickey Malott, with Margaret Ackley, Elwood Jacob, Jean Klimovich, and Mary Paniccia as assistants.

Dale Claucherty has charge of the set, assisted by Betty Comstock, Tony Egnatuk, Dick Geyer, Wayne Husband, Katie Kowalchuck, Don Nash, and Lyman Winchell.

Make-up is headed by Ellen Tuthill, and assisted by Betty Comstock, Audrey Dryer, Emmy Finnigan, Beverly Husband, Mary Lou Lamphier, Betty Murphy, Doris Romans, and Jean Wigner.

Seniors Plan For Last Year In High School

Greying, bent with age and wisdom, the seniors are making preparations to spend their last year at Albion high. With graduation looming into sight Mr. Harton has met with the prospective grads to prepare them for the outside world. Name cards and announcements are being ordered and appointments for graduation pictures are being made.

At the football games the senior girls are found selling hot dogs and candy to fatten up the class treasury, and on the gridiron the senior boys are playing their last games. After game dances are also managed by "seniorites," and the "Sock Hop" was one of the new slants in dancing fashions. Besides being a novelty, it helped keep the gym floor in condition for the coming basketball games.

If the seniors appeared puzzled last week, it was only because they were considering who to vote for on the Popularity Poll. A little early? No . . . the Breeze Staff just plans to have the annual out on time this year, and our "little ole editors" are already busily at work on the yearbook.

So you see, fellow students, the forty-niners are hard at work getting things started. Time marches on . . . and so do our seniors.

Decorations Support Theme of Snowball

With decorations of Christmas trees and Santa Claus carrying out its theme, the Snowball was held December 18. Ellen Tuthill and Sandy Wochholz were crowned king and queen and Nancy Comstock, Frances Hawes, Charles Howell, Phyllis Newell, Hal Shaffer, and Stanley Swanson made up their court.

The formal was sponsored by the senior high student council.

President's Speech, Prize Essay To Round Out Evening Program

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, will be the play presented at the fiftieth annual Junior Exhibition, next Thursday in the High School Auditorium. The program between the acts will consist of music by Elizabeth Davis and the welcome address, given by Charles Howell, president of the class of '49. As has been the custom in the past, the winning Junior essay will be read at this time.

Harold Wochholz will give his essay, "Let's All Work Together." Miss Martha Zemke is directing the play and Nancy Comstock is the student director.

The play, as dramatized by Jean Kerr, stars Pat Henke, as Cornelia Skinner and Sallee Fox, as Emily Kimbrough, who are going to Europe for the first time by themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner (Frances Hawes and Stanley Swanson) are quite dissatisfied about the whole thing as they too are leaving the same day, only on a different boat.

The many adventures of the girls while on ship board are aided by two young American boys, Leo McEvoy (Harley Transue) and Dick Winters (Dick Sayles), whom they meet. Also adding to the confusion of their journey are the steward (Robert Goodall), the purser (Bob Trautman), the stewardess (Polly Baldwin), the admiral (Don Klein), the inspector (Hal Schaffer), and two English travelers, Winifred Blaugh (Barbara Schaible) and Harriet St. John (June Charlier).

When Emily and Cornelia finally arrive in Paris, Cornelia can almost see her dreams coming true as she meets the famous French actor, Monsieur De La Croix (Dick Eckmyre), whom she expects to give her dramatic lessons. Adding to the French atmosphere of the play are Therese (Jean Davis) and Madame Elise (Katie Bournel), and the window cleaner (Elwood Jacob).

Singsperation!

Tune Up, Cheer For Albion High

The following 3 inches are dedicated to certain fans of A.H.S. The kind, who, when the school song is sung, stand and move their mouth, hoping to fool someone, or to those who don't even make an attempt. The song is sung to the tune of "On the Mall."

These fans might take the following words and find some private little dark corner where they can sing to their heart's content. Then, at the next pep assembly or even at the game tonight, everyone will be able to join in and sing—

So we'll sing a song in honor of old Albion High

And we'll sing with a spirit sincere.

We will always cheer for our beloved Albion High

As we follow her banner each year.

There will always be good sportsmanship from Albion High

And a team that our rivals all fear.

So let's shout until the rafters ring, for Albion High.

It's the high school that knows no peer.

Wildcats Finish Third in T.V.

Reed, Grenevitch Place Among TV High Scorers

Albion high school's dashing basketball team made a winning bid for third place in the Twin Valley league when they defeated East Lansing by a score of 43 to 32, February 29 in the Albion high gym. Besides placing third, two Albion high cagers, Lin Reed and Paul Grenevitch were listed among the upper ten scorers of the Twin Valley league.

For the second consecutive year, Rex Corless, Coldwater, leads the Twin Valley cagers, this year with 224 points. Marshall's two "Bills," Postula and Ward, deadlocked for second with 199 each. Reed with 165 and Grenevitch with 146 placed next.

A record of Albion players and their standing follows:

The honor, if any, for the team having the most personal fouls, goes also to Albion with a total of 283, however, according statistics the good seems to outweigh the bad.

The Wildcats advanced four notches this season when they left last year's seventh team rating for third position. Above Albion in the season standings are Coldwater in first place and Marshall in second. Team standings follow:

|              | TP  | OP  | W  | L  |

Lin Reed, Harold Wochholz Named On All-T.V. Conference First Team

Two A. H. S. Wildcat football squad members, Quarterback Harold Wochholz and End Linwood Reed, were named as members of the mythical all-Twin Valley Athletic Ass'n first team for the 1948 season. The conference honor squad was chosen by a vote of the T. V. circuit coaches at the association's annual fall meeting, held in Battle Creek, Monday November 15.

Wildcat Center, Anthony Egnatuk was given honorable mention after being nosed out of a second team berth by a very small margin.

Mr. Lloyd F. Kusch, sports writer for the Albion Evening Recorder, was appointed as publicity director of the Twin Valley Athletic Association. Immediately announced was the Wildcat 1949 football season. It is as follows: Sept. 16, at Hillsdale; Sept. 23, at Sturgis; *Sept. 30, B. C. Central, here; Oct. 7, B. C. Lakeview, here; Oct. 14, at East Lansing; Oct. 21, Adrian, here; Oct. 28, Coldwater, here; Nov. 4, at Marshall.

Three Seniors Awarded Places On All-State Teams

There comes a time after every football season when honorary teams are chosen by different newspapers and news services. Several members of the Albion squad were given honors in nearly every honor squad chosen in this district of the state.

End Lin Reed, Quarterback Harold Wochholz and Center Tony Egnatuk, gained honorable mention on the Detroit Times all-state high school football squad. This honor was announced November 28.

Reed and Wochholz were similarly recognized on the Detroit Free Press squad and Reed was also cited on the Detroit News team. The announcement of these honors was made earlier in the month of December.

The honors that these boys hold were earned by sportsmanship on and off the field and their all around ability to play good football. Another, and possibly the most coveted award that the Wildcat squad members hold is the fact that Reed, Wochholz and Egnatuk were chosen to be members of the Twin Valley Athletic Association honor squads. Wochholz and Reed were chosen to represent the TVA squad. Egnatuk was given honorable mention.

Too many people don't care what happens, as long as it doesn't happen to them.

Many people have a nice sense of rumor.

Opportunity always looks bigger going than coming.

Marshall Returns Football Trophy To Albion Squad

In 1940 the Marshall football squad obtained possession of the Albion-Marshall rotating trophy and have held it until a few weeks previous to this publication. They returned the trophy to Albion this year for the first time since 1940.

Lee Whittaker Captain of the 1948 Marshall team which fell under Albion's superior strength, 13-0, presented the trophy to Co-Captain Linwood Reed of the Albion squad with these words: "Here it is until next year."

The presentation of the trophy took place during the annual Albion-Marshall football dinner held this year at the Parker Inn in Albion November 9. The banquet is sponsored by and through the combined efforts of the Rotary Clubs of both cities. Charles Bachman of East Lansing, former coach at Michigan State College, was the principal speaker.

Capt. Whittaker introduced the Marshall team members and Co-Captains Reed, Tony Egnatuk and Stanley Swanson introduced the Albion players.

Coaches

Again this year, as in the past several years, Albion has a five man coaching staff. Each member is the head coach of one of the major teams throughout the year, and the others alternate as the assistant coaches. We have had the fact proven that Albion's coaching staff is excellent, and we hope that it will remain so in the future.

Athletic Board

As it's name implies, the Athletic Board has charge of many of the matters refering to the athletic program of the school. The awarding of merit letters, interscholastic athletic program, the spending of the Athletic fund and providing the necessary equipment for the teams are only a few of the duties executed by the Athletic Board.

From a nationwide contest, sponsored by the VanGorden Syndicate, a new model for the comic strip "Brenda Starr" has been discovered. According to Miss Pinky VanGorden, president of the Syndicate, Miss Audrey Dryer is the lucky winner.

Strikes are always in the news. The latest one to date is the mammoth push button workers strike at the Anderson Washing Machine Plant. It seems that the Union head, Mary Paniccia wants a shorter working day, from five to four hours instead of the regular six. Mr. Roger Anderson and Miss Paniccia are in conference to see what can be done.

Robert Goodall's new play, "You Can't Have It, or, Who Threw Ma in the Cellar," starring those Broadway stars Arley Bergstresser and Betty Wallace in the leading roles, just opened on Broadway for a long run. Perhaps a week.

The Flashy Flashes Sun Glasses Co. has hired Jean Allen as their new saleswomen, says Miss Leona Rutz, president of the company.

Buggs Anderson's Pool Hall was raided again last night. Frank Simmons and Ida May Williams caused some commotion when they began a fight over who lost the last pool ball. The only charges will be for them to buy a new set of pool balls.

"The President will have lemon pie on Tuesday," says Jean Anderson, the president's personal pie baker.

The famous song writer, Kendall Bedient, has just written a new song. Polly Baldwin and the A.H.S. band will give the first performance of the song. The name of this hit tune is, "The Sky's the Limit, or, Where Did Pa Go, Ma?" The guest vocalist will be Wayne Union, well known and liked by the coke crowd.

Junior Beilfuss is contesting for Phyllis Palmiter's 5th divorce. As her lawyer, this will be four out of five he has handled for her. She is planning to marry Austin Clark Bitney, oil well magnate, as soon as his fourth divorce is granted from actress Jo Ann Phelps.

Movie idol Mitchell Malott has been playing at the Mosher Theater and has given Albion's truant officer, Barry Ewbank, quite a job of collecting teen-age fans from the matinees, and taking them back to school, where he had such a good record during his youth. Principal Jerrold Bevis says the problem is quite critical.

Three traffic cops of our fair city, Dick Geyer, Mike Kulinich, and Rodney Lewis have been awarded the AAA safedriving awards for 1960. This has had quite an effect on the business of Klein and Miller, Morticians, during the past year. They have had to take up a sideline of rug weaving to supplement their income.

The famous Toni Twins, Betty and Nancy Comstock, have arrived on the planet Mars to promote sales. The only thing that's troubling the Toni Co. is that the people on Mars are completely bald. Oh well, small matter. It is said there are trees and grass.

The French Ambassador Lin Reed, has himself in trouble again. Seems he has the French government believing that we have a new Atomic-Atom. They are expecting an attack at any time according to reports.

You know that song that goes, "We'll build a sweet little nest, somewhere in the West"? Well, that's just what Fran Hawes and Victor Ball have done. It seems they got married and while on their honeymoon they stopped in Canyon Diablo, Arizona. It was such a devilish place, they decided to set up Tourist Cabins and stay there the rest of their natural lives. Guess they will, too.

Fire Chief Frank Bushinski made his first run today. The alarm was called in from the home of Geraldine Benjamin. It seems that Geraldine was typing so fast she burned up the keyboard. Damage was slight, although Johnnie Mae Hall received quite a shock from all the excitement.

Ah, yes, it's that time of year again. Nellie and Irene Zurell, local income tax collectors, have announced that cats and dogs may now be listed as dependents. Since the announcement, there has been a mad rush to Marian Dean's home for lost dogs and cats. The Honorable mayor Margaret Ackley, says she already has her quota of nine dogs.

Miss Katie Bournelis announces the following newcomers to her "Lopsided Mansion, Home for Foundlings." Among the most important are listed—one parrot, three monkeys, and a gorilla. Wayne Husband had just been hired as the new janitor of the establishment.

The noted researcher Harley Transue is in the hospital suffering from "Nicotine Effects." It seems he did a research article on "Seven Leading Brands" for the Smokers Digest and the after effects were a little too much on the noted scientist. "He was a total abstainer until the article," says his nurse, Mary Jane Mills.

The circus is always an item of interest to both young and old. Ringling's has added several new members to its show this year. A few of the specimens are: Eleanor Post as a women's wrestling contender. It seems she is acclaimed worlds champion woman wrestler. Clarence Torry as the tall man, and his wife Betty Zatalokin as the fat lady. They are quite a devoted pair, so it is heard. Then of course the strong man Robert Trautman, who is the successor to Charles Atlas, is also on the payroll.

Flash! Connie Murran has won the critics award for the stupidest comic strip of the year, "Awful Ignorant." It is based on the life story of Jean Wigner and is a hit all over the nation.

Admiral Richard Eckmyre of the 17th Fleet, based at Duck Lake, has enlisted the aid of Eddie Wilson, famous distance swimmer, to help him discover how far a person can swim before he drowns. Also along on the trip will be Tony Egnatuk, the Tarzan of the movies, to help Eddie if he goes too far under.

Dale MacDonald, coach of Ping-Pong at Parma Tech., has listed Jim Shelters and Robert Hughes as his starting doubles team in the National Championship Tournament which starts next week. Coach MacDonald also named Elwood Jacob as his choice for the singles.

Pat Henke and Nancy Herrick have added two more members to their all-male chorus. The signing of Charles Howell and John Phelps was done yesterday, bringing the total membership to fifty-seven men.

A special announcement was made yesterday in Paris concerning the new length of dresses. Fashion experts Barbara Schaible and Doris Romans notified the women of the world that dresses this year would be only three inches above the knee instead of the five inches of last year.

The only two women bus drivers in America had a fight this morning after a Concord City Bus, driven by Ellen Tuthill collided with a Greyhound Bus driven by Delores Foltz. The only witness to the accident was Kenneth Sandusky who was looking out of his clothing store window. Both drivers were held for questioning.

Our roving reporter sends us some reports on interesting happenings throughout the world; in South Africa, that famous exploring team of Wochholz and Newell discovered the long lost adventurer, Bernard Konkle. He has set up a store in a native village and is selling second hand clothes. Up in Alaska, Stanley and Joan Peters are developing a new process for canning whale blubber.

It was announced today that three new teachers would begin their duties next year at Albion High. Miss Mary Lou Lamphier has been hired as Girls' Physical Education Instructor. Louise Helton will replace Mr. Kenneth Higgins as Instructor of History, while Shirley Pearson will take over the new course in Flying Instruction. The new choir director will be Dorothy Tucker.

Approximately $75 was taken last night from the "Clean Face Beauty Shop," owned by Miss Caroline Kreger and operated by Miss Delores Holtz. Miss Holtz has not been located for questioning as yet.

Flash! The first case of bigamy in ten years was taken before Circuit Court Judge Karl Shimkus. It concerns Mr. Stanley Swanson, mailcarrier for the Albion City Post Office, and the Mrs., or shall we say Misses, June Charlier and Sallee Fox. The evidence given was by Misses Fox and Charlier, stating they could neither stand being separated from each other, and so they both married Mr. Swanson. Sentence is to be passed today.

A couple of hot bits for the radio column. Starting tomorrow Miss Emmy Finnegan will conduct the morning exercise program at 8 o'clock, while "Breakfast with the Pecks" starring Carolyn Van Meter and Robert Peckham, is celebrating its fifth successful year on the radio station WHEATIES.

Betty Murphy sailed on the Queen Mary this evening, bound for Paris to accept a job with the French Secret Service. It seems she has something they want.

Dale Claucherty, head janitor of A.H.S., with his assistant Russell Passmore, has invented a new way to clean the walls of the school. It is a secret as yet, however.

Announcement has been made of the purchase of the Parker Inn by Dino Kostianes and Pauline Steffe. They have already made changes in the staff, placing Katie Kowalchuck and Robert Lusk as head cooks, and for entertainment in the Greenthorne Room, Miss Jean Davis, mystic and fortune teller, has been hired.

The noted brain surgeon, Dr. Jean Klimovich, has just performed a successful brain operation on Chuddy Warson. It was claimed to be the impossible accomplishment, but Dr. Klimovich has proved her worth. Miss Warson is now a normal person.

Clarice Collyer, head of the Foreign Affairs Committee, called Antoinette deNicola, our ambassador to India, before the Senate to find the cause of all the trouble between the U. S. and India. Miss deNicola said the fuss wasn't between the two countries but between Shiek Omesh Khanna and two missionary women, Dorothy and Eleanor Connor. It seems that the two women wanted to teach the Shiek how to act civilized.

In the world of sports we find that the Brooklyn Dodgers announced the signing of Lyman Winchell, Ken Marshall and Farrel Sims. The two highest professional football players for next season will be Roy Stallworth and Herbert Gant. These two boys were the leading ground gainers in the National Football Conference. Dick Sayles and Shirley Vinson will defend their titles in the A.B.C. bowling tournament to be held at the new 50 lane alley owned by Don Nash and Phyllis Ann Williams.

At the annual convention of the American Baking Congress, Hal Shaffer, President of the Holland Cookie Co., was elected chairman for the coming year. The principal speaker at the convention was David Mills, warden at Alcatraz, who spoke on the food in the prison.

Miss Yvonne Griffin announces the opening of her new "Old Maids Home." This is the 19th home Miss Griffin has opened in Michigan. Richard Williams will do the cooking.

Bob White, noted Atomic researcher and Beverly Husband, announce their plans for a June wedding. The announcement took place at a party given by Arthur Warner (better known as the Thin Man to radio listeners).
